Congress Sets Funding For Homeless Assistance Programs

- Members of Congress circulate “Dear Colleague” letters to build support for funding homeless services.
- Congress hosts hearings to establish priorities for the budget.
- House and Senate mark-ups begin.
- House and Senate work out differences for a final funding bill.

DO THIS

- Call, email, or tweet your members of Congress to communicate specific funding requests for HUD programs.
- Mobilize your advocacy network to take action.
- Encourage members of Congress to send “Dear Colleague” letters.

SAY THIS

“Congress must fully fund HUD’s Homeless Assistance programs to serve those currently experiencing homelessness and the growing number of people falling into homelessness.”
