

2025 Call for Presentations

This document is for preparation only and cannot be used to submit your application.
You must submit your application online here.

The author of this submission must also be the proposed presenter. Additional presenters may be determined at a later date and will not be part of this submissions process.

While organizations may submit multiple presentations, each presenter is allowed a maximum of two (2) submissions for the 2025 Call for Presentations. If more than two submissions are received, only the first two will be considered.

If you are employed by a federal agency, you are not eligible to submit a proposal.
