Majority of Low-Income Renters With Severe Cost Burdens Are People of Color

Share of 24 million renters in low-income households that pay over half their income for housing, by race/ethnicity

Note: Low-income = household earns less than 80% of the local median income. Latino category may contain individuals of any race that identify as Latino or Hispanic; other categories exclude individuals that identify as Latino or Hispanic. Chart excludes individuals identifying as some other race, representing .4% of the total.

Most Federal Housing Expenditures Benefit Homeowners

Federal housing expenditures in billions, 2015

*Low-Income Housing Tax Credit

Notes: These numbers do not include approximately $840 million of housing-related spending through the Community Development Block Grant program, of which the majority is for homeownership assistance or rehabilitation of single-family homes. Figures are outlays and tax expenditures for fiscal year 2015. Tax expenditure estimates do not account for interaction effects, such as, for instance, how the use of one tax expenditure affects the use of others.

Policymakers Robustly Expanded Federal Rental Assistance from 1965 to 1995

Number of assisted rental units

Note: Chart shows units with rental subsidies that vary by amount based on the occupant's income, including those funded under the Housing Choice Voucher, Section 8 Project-Based Rental Assistance, Public Housing, Section 202 Housing for the Elderly, Section 811 Housing for People with Disabilities, Rent Supplement, Homeless Assistance Grant, Housing Opportunities for People with HIV-AIDS, and Section 521 rental assistance programs. Several small programs are excluded due to a lack of data. Figures do not include programs without deep subsidies, such as the Low Income Housing Tax Credit program.

Record Rise in Homelessness Follows Expiration of Pandemic Relief and Eviction Protections

Percent change in people experiencing homelessness since 2015

Note: Dashed line indicates missing unsheltered homelessness data in 2021 due to pandemic-related data collection issues. Pandemic relief measures include the CDC eviction moratorium, Emergency Rental Assistance, Economic Impact Payments, and the expanded Child Tax Credit and Unemployment Insurance.
